53 Special Allowances for Woolclassers

53.1 Fares and Travelling Allowances for Expeditionary Employees

(a) An employee will be reimbursed all fares, or be compensated for motor vehicle expenses at a rate of $0.91 cents per kilometre, to travel the most direct route to and from the shed at the commencement and conclusion of a period of engagement at a shed from the closest of:

- (i) the employee's place of residence; or
- (ii) the employee's previous place of work; or
- (iii) the place of engagement.

(c) When an employer offers an employee accommodation in accordance with this award, such employee not availing them self of such accommodation will not be entitled to this allowance.

(d) The vehicle allowance, as specified above in clause 53.1 (a), applies only where an employee actually uses their vehicle to travel to and from the shed.

(e) The fares, as specified above in clause 47.1 (a), are paid only where they are actually incurred and this does not include airfares unless agreed at the time of engagement.

53.3 Allowance for delays for woolclassers paid off at piecework rate

- 53.3 (a) In the event of the employer failing to start shearing on the day fixed by the contract the employer will, provided the woolclasser is ready to start on the day fixed, pay the employee for the time kept idle, a daily amount of 10% of the appropriate guaranteed weekly minimum rate for the classification of the employee, unless the failure to start is caused by wet weather or other unforeseen causes such as fire, flood, earthquake or any other act of God.
- 53.3 (b) The number of stands to be taken into account when calculating the allowance shall be the maximum number of stands actually occupied by shearers during the shearing.
- 53.3 (c) The allowance set out in this clause will be in full satisfaction of all claims by the employee arising out of such failure to start on the part of the employer.
- 53.3 (d) The abovementioned rates will only apply where an employee is paid the piecework rate.

PAYG - Withholding Tax

Please ensure you are using the correct Pay As You Go (PAYG) Withholding Tax Tables.

The flat rate of tax of 13% will remain in place for shearers and shed staff.
